

AzPA Membership holds the key to your professional growth

Legislation Affecting the Practice of Psychology

AzPA monitors and responds to legislation that is impacting practitioners in the state

Information Exchange:

- AzPA listservs/forums provide the ability to interact with peers on important ethical questions, business practice information and client referrals
- AzPA's website offers valuable access to community and professional resources
- Access to experts on practice and ethical issues
- AzPA Ethics Committee for consultation
- Representation and networking through special groups, such as Rural and Early Career Psychologist committees and regional affiliates.
- AzPA publications to include the Arizona Psychologist, published twice annually, and monthly member updates

Business Development:

- Participation in the statewide AzPA Referral Service network
- Professional web pages
- Discounted advertising and exhibiting rates

Education

- Discounted member rates for all continuing education programs to include the Annual Convention with continuing education, networking and socializing.

Information Security:

- Inclusion in the AzPA Repository of Record Keeping, allowing you to store contact information for patients to comply with record keeping laws

Health and Dental Discounts

Family Fun & Vacation Discounts